Electrical Safety Recall

IKEA Pty Ltd - ÅSKSTORM 40W USB charger

Sold nationally through IKEA stores and website from 1 April 2020 to 5 December 2023.

Identification:

- charger is in dark grey colour
- model number 'ICPSW5-40-1' can be found on a label on the backside of the charger
- article number 304.611.94 is located on the packaging of the product

Why the product is recalled

The power cable can get damaged or broken exposing users to live parts of the cable.

Hazard:

There is a risk of burn injuries or death from electric shock if a user touches a damaged cable that is live with electricity. There is also a risk of damage to property if the charger catches fire.

Incidents have occurred where cables were damaged and caused electric shock and burn injuries to consumers.

Action required:

Consumers should stop using the affected product immediately and contact IKEA via phone or in-store to receive full refund. Proof of purchase (receipt) is not required.
